*It gives me great pleasure to announce our forthcoming 6th Government Roundtable entitled "Leadership Strategy for Global Recovery through Regional Cooperation" which has been scheduled to take place on April 17th-19th, 2002 at the Astir Palace Hotel, Vouliagmeni - Athens, Greece.

Our forthcoming summit shall focus upon greater regional cooperation to reverse the global economic downturn and to promote security and stability in the region through a stimulating dialogue and constructive collaboration among all its prestigious participants. Furthermore, the 6th Government Roundtable's scope is to brainstorm with world leaders and decision-makers from international business, government, academia and the media on key economic, political and social issues on the global agenda as well as to focus upon the difficult tasks and challenges that lie ahead.

*With this letter, we cordially invite you, Mr. Prime Minister, to give us the honour and pleasure of your participation as our Guest of Honour and Keynote Speaker during the Official Dinner of the 6th Government Roundtable on April 17th, 2002 at 21.00 hours.

We sincerely hope to have the pleasure of having you with us at this important summit which shall once again play host to more than 1.000 politicians, prominent presidents and C.E.O.'s of multi-national and local companies, from Greece and other European countries, international organisations and banks, cabinet ministers from Greece and the Balkan region, Ambassadors as well as representatives of the international and local media.

We shall be inviting the Prime Ministers from the Southeast European and Eastern Mediterranean region as well as the Prime Ministers of other European countries to attend the conference should you wish to conduct meetings with them during your brief stay in Athens.

We sincerely hope to have you with us during this important global summit.

In anticipation of your positive reply, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

*Nectaria Passarivakis (Mrs.)
Executive Director
The Economist Conferences for Greece & Cyprus*
