At Trial of 34 VS, April 3 witness and one of tts at the sedition trial toons facing possible death a tearful reunion wring a session overnment is a ATHENS. defense defendants at 34 persons of of 34 persons facing periods sentence, held a tearful reunion in court today during a session which heard a former government minister charge that "Greece is a dictatorship."

were empty, 1 this added to our terror. I fe, as if the whole experience were a dream as if it weren's really happening to me."

Greece Called

Dictatorship

Defense lawyers for the 34 pre ented an international array o itnesses ranging from a onetim sented of witnesses ranging onetime Greek government titled British lady. government minister to 8 the defense witnesses, ns Jescheck, of West who testified on behalf ant Alexandros Manga-the military tribunal for One of t rof. Hans Prof. Germany, who testified on of defendant Alexandros kis, asked the military tribu permission to greet his old friend. The tribunal assented and the two men, leaning across the dock, embraced one another with tears in their eyes. How to Fight Reds

Later defense witness Geo Mavros, who was a minister in last government of the late Geo Papand: .ou, lectured the court how to combat Communism. vitness George minister in the the late George on

Mr. Mavros said Communism is not a real danger for Greece. The current regime seized power in April, 1967, because of what it called the 1967, because of what it called the threat of Communism. "Greece is a dictatorship, and dictatorships breed communism,"

2

f

1

ł

e t 1

f

P t e

3

T

e

h

d d n

e.

ıe

R

and Mavros said. Mr.

"A very good example is Italy, which after 25 years of Mussolini rule has the largest Communist rule has the la party in Europe."

"On the contrary, in democracies ke Britain and Switzerland there not a single Communist deputy like is not a singl in parliament. single

Lady Fleming

Another defense witness today was Lady Amalia Fleming, widow of the inventor of penicillin, who testified on behalf of two of testified of defendants—Dionyssios Kara-gas and Christos Rokofyllo. called them "outstanding the georgas called t She scientists, a are credit to Greece." Prof. Jescheck said he had known Mr. Mangakis in Germany, where they had worked together.

The 34 are accused of sedition the 34 are accused of sedition by being members of an organiza-tion called Democratic Defense, which printed leaflets and cam-paigned for a return to democratic rule in Greece.

A 35th defendant, Antonios Parianos, who had been unable to attend the trial because of ill health, died today at a clinic in Pireaus where he was admitted in February after being detained by to attend the trial because of in health, died today at a clinic in Pireaus where he was admitted in February after being detained by police, his family reported. Mr. Parianos, 38, an importer who had once been the secretary-general of the Greek Sports Fed-eration, had suffered from cancer. le le n te

Blast Kills Miner

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., April 3 (Reuters).—An explosion and fire ripped through a coal mine near here yesterday, killing one miner Seven others in the mine escaped unhurt,