Ή.Ε.

Mr. William J. Clinton

President of the United States of America

It is with a deep sense of sorrow that I am writing you to express my sincere condolences on the tragic loss of Ronald H. Brown and of his collaborators. The distinguished contributions to his country and his people insure his lasting place in their memory and his passing-away will be noted with sorrow by all the Americans who have known and respected him for his gentleness and wisdom. We share the sorrow of the people of United States in their great loss.

In conveying to you, to the families of the victims and to the American people, my personal and the Greek government's sincerest condolences and deep sympathy, please, accept, Mr. President, the assurances of my highest consideration and esteem.

Costas Simitis

Prime Minister of the Hellenic Republic"
