Dear Angela,
thank you so very much for your quick response! I guess we must have missed the keynote paper somewhere - to many people involved as usual...

Best regards!
/Maria

Dear Maria,

With reference to your e-mail of yesterday, please find attached:

1. The keynote paper (it was attached in Mr. Themelis' e-mail communication of January 3, 2001). The author is Professor George Papadimitriou, Legal Advisor to the Prime Minister, who will be presiding the afternoon round table, that will focus on the subject: "International movements of labour, asylum and integration of migrants". There will also be a morning round table, that will focus on the subject: "Promotion and encouragement of diversity".

2. A list of the participants.

Please note that in the next days I 'll forward to you a technical note.

Please do not hesitate to contact me for any further information you may need.

Best regards,
Angela Vassilatou
Secretary to Mr. N.Themelis

Subject: Workshop

Dear Angela,

I am writing on behalf of Ms Harby Samuelsson and Mr. Engström, who are the Swedish participants in the workshop "How to promote tolerance and respect for cultural, ethnic and religious diversity". They are very much looking forward to the workshop and for them to be able to prepare themselves properly, I am turning to you for help.

Mr. Themelis mailed a letter to Mr. Nuder in November in which he mentioned the above workshop. He also stated that a keynote paper was to be circulated to the invited experts before the workshop. My question is now, has such a paper been sent out? If not, do you have any inclination of when it will be circulated? May I also ask who the author of the keynote paper is and if he/she will be responsible for the presentation at the round table? My last question is regarding the participants. Is there a list that you could send me for reference?

This all for now. I hope that these questions will not cause too much trouble for you. If there is anything I can help you with, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

Maria Danielsson
